ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Houston Casualty Company's Motion to Intervene. (Doc. # 51). There is no opposition to the motion. The Court hereby finds that (1) Houston Casualty's motion is timely, (2) Houston Casualty has a substantial legal interest in the subject matter of this case, (3) Houston Casualty's ability to protect its interest may be impaired in the absence of its intervention, and (4) the parties currently before the Court will not adequately represent Houston Casualty's interests. The present action shares common questions of law or fact making Houston Casualty's intervention proper.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Houston Casualty Company's Motion to Intervene (Doc. # 51) is GRANTED.

Pursuant to the telephone status conference held on June 18, 2009, Houston
Casualty Company has consented to Magistrate Judge plenary jurisdiction in this case.
